To the right, a white iPhone is shown with its screen displaying the date 'Friday 16' and several app icons like Messages, Calendar, and Weather. Below the iPhone, there's a teal-colored square textured charger. In the center, a white USB-C to Lightning cable is plugged into a small, square, pink textured charger, which is resting on a larger, square, light-colored textured charger. To the right of the pink charger is a larger, square, light-colored textured charger. At the bottom left, a black smartphone is shown with its screen displaying a blue and green abstract pattern.
